TRAMPS PUT UP AND SOLD .- A dispatch from Moberly, Mo., says: "Four tramps arrested here for vagrancy were put up at public auction on Monday from the Courtnouse steps. The sale had been duly advertised according to law and there was a large crowd present. The bidding was not very spirited. Two of the tramps went to farmers for $2 a head and another was bid in for 75 cents. The fourth tramp could find no purchaser and be was returned to jail The three who were sold must serve their purchaser for four months"

"I have read the papers" was the reply of a simple appearing old gentleman from in a game of cards on an Erie train.
P.S.—Now is the time to subscribe.

An old bachelor, who particularly hated i terary women, asked an authoress if she uld throw any light on kissing. "I could," aid she, looking archly at him, but I think is better in the dark."

No one can be good, or great, or happy. W. Robertson.

A SNAKE STORY .- One day last week while Mrs Augustus Gebringer, of Grimsville, Berks county, Pa., was walking through a field on her county, Pa., was walking through a field on her way home from a store, she felt a tickling sensation in the throat, followed by a sickening and suffocating feeling, caused by something trying to fr.e itself up through her throat. It became more and more oppressive, until the woman fell ver from being almost strangled. The jar of falling seemed to have a good effect, for whatever was in her throat came into her mouth. She reached her fingers down, and to her horror pulled out a living, wriggling snake about seven inches long. With alarm Mrs. Gebringer threw the snake to the ground and it crawled away. How it got into the woman's stomach is a mystely, but it is believed that she drank it in water when very small. It never gave her trouble before, but a sudden decrease in her weight recently impelled her to believe she was a victim of ly impelled her to believe she was a victim of dyspepsia.
